Dear Bill:

As Chairman of the National Foreign Intelligence Board, I wish to express my gratitude to you for the most helpful advice and assistance you have given me over the past year.

Not only have you been an able advocate of the Department of the Treasury's viewpoint, but also you have brought to bear your years of accumulated intelligence wisdom in considering major issues of vital concern to our national security. Your contributions to the Board's work have enabled me to reach judgments from a truly national point of view.

I take this opportunity to wish you well in the days ahead.

Sincerely,

/s/ George Bush
